Site I Love: Shopthelook.net

Friday November 13, 2009

Artful accessorizing is a fantastic way to express yourself and update the clothes you already have, but there's no need to spend a lot to do it. I'm a huge fan of this site called Shopthelook.net because it has loads and loads and loads and - did I say loads? - of jewelry and hair accessories, and most everything is under twenty bucks. If you're looking for a quick style fix, check it out.
