

5 things we're psyched about this month

1 Romantic Nights In

Whether you're newly dating or old marrieds, make that Valentine's feeling last all February long: We're tweeting 28 of our sweetest recipes, fall-in-love menus and ideas at twitter.com/rachaelraymag. (Solo? Throw a single-mingle party the Sunday after V-Day—we've got the menu for that, too.)

2

Finally Scrambling Our Eggs Just Right

We're tired of hiding ours under a blanket of ketchup, so we watched every day teri make creamy scrambled eggs. (Her secret: Cook them over low heat and stir constantly with a rubber spatula for 5 or 6 minutes.) Then we went back and watched her make eggs over easy, fried, boiled and into an easy omelet. Why not get crackin', too?

Our Brand-New Photo Contest

We dig your photo contest entries. Enter to win this month's contest, Your Favorite Thing. Snap an object that matters most to you for a chance to win a Nikon D3000 camera, valued at $600.

Reading Your Blogs

We want to know what's cooking in your world. Haven't started an Every Day blog? It just takes a minute to get going, and we're shining the spotlight on our new faves all the time, like the Wine Chicks Guide to Inexpensive Wine, kellied's blog about finding the best cheap wine.

Every Day Advice

Mailing cookies to your sweetie for Valentine's Day? Wait till the last pickup of the day to send them so they're less likely to get crushed, says UPS Store packing pro Julie Sterling. Find more good-to-know tips in our new section, Every Day Advice.
