

A woman with dark hair pulled back is smiling and looking down. She is wearing a light blue tunic with a vibrant green tropical print of leaves and flowers. The tunic has a V-neckline with a decorative beaded chain and a matching belt. She is also wearing white wide-leg trousers and white sandals with dark straps. A yellow square highlights a pair of earrings on her head. The background consists of wide, weathered stone steps leading up a hillside with lush green foliage and a stone wall on the right.
