

“What I ♥ About Weekends”

Jayma Mays—a.k.a. McKinley High’s lovable guidance counselor—shares what makes her weekends Glee-ful.

Interview by Elizabeth Jenkins

Packing light

“I like small bags because they keep me from carrying too many things! I just got a really cool one by Kooba.”
Shown: Kooba ‘Claire’ bag ($275; saksfifthavenue.com)

A subtle scent

“I wear Rose the One, which is not overwhelming. My husband is English, so it makes me feel like an English rose.” Dolce & Gabbana Rose the One Eau de Parfum spray ($90; Saks Fifth Avenue)

A fun mani-pedi

“Wearing polish is a good way to feel girly! I like strong, poppy nail colors. Zoya is great because it doesn’t have chemicals that are bad for you.”
Zoya nail polish in Michelle ($7; zoya.com)

Fresh herbs (ahhh!)

“[When I entertain], I like to put fresh herbs like basil and thyme on the table in mason jars. They’re beautiful, and they smell really good, too.”

My favorite kicks

“I usually wear Keds sneakers on the weekend. I have a neon apricot pair—the cutest, most comfortable shoes!” Keds Champion CVO sneakers ($35; keds.com)

Date-night bling

“My husband picked out delicate bangles that I wear if we’re going out.” Shown: Metal Fusion Bangles ($12; shophthelook.net)

Playing domestic goddess

“I have a collection of aprons. If it’s just a girls’ brunch [at my place], we all put them on. I like the 1950’s style that go from the waist down.” Shown: Anthropologie Sewing Basket Half Apron ($32; anthropologie.com)

Top right photo: Andrew Stiles; Still photo: Vanessa Griggs, Market Editor: Samara D'Auria