

Fab and affordable earrings

You don't need to spend a fortune to sparkle this New Year's Eve!

Statement earrings like SELENA GOMEZ's pair look stunning with a bare neckline.

Under $25

These studs sit flush against the ears, so they won't pull when you're dancing all night long. Shop4Sparkles, $10, shop4sparkles.com

To prevent them from looking chintzy, pair oversized rhinestones with a luxe piece, like a cashmere cardi. Bebe, $24, bebe.com

Fuchsia stones play off a darker complexion, giving skin a warm glow. ShopTheLook.net, $18, shopthelook.net

Gold-tone beaded detailing complements blond locks. Charlotte Russe, $7, charlotte russe.com

Under $50

Wear this pair with a black top to highlight the trendy oxidation. Topshop, $45, topshop.com

These are so lightweight, you can wear them comfortably from day to night. R.J. Graziano, $45, 212-685-1248

Chandelier earrings that widen at the base add fullness to a narrow face. Express, $30, express.com

Amp up a white T-shirt with these multicolor stunners. Zoe & Syd, $45, 212-239-4546

Under $100

Hoops soften an angular face but are flattering on everyone. Kenneth Jay Lane, $63, whotels.thestore.com

The rhinestones on this chain-link style are always moving, picking up the light for extra sparkle! J.Crew, $55, jcrew.com

This classic style is ideal for black-tie occasions. Aida Kibur @ Supplements NY, $73, lifemix.net

At 6 inches long, this chandelier pair works best with a strapless frock. Betsy Johnson, $65, Betsy Johnson boutiques

EARRINGS 101

SIZE MATTERS

"Oversize earrings are hot this season," says jewelry designer Kara Ackerman. "Ease into the look with ones that are 3 inches long, a universally flattering length."

HOLIDAY SPARKLE

"Use glam earrings as your go-to holiday accessory. Just tie hair back and add mascara!"

KEEP 'EM CLEAN

Warm water and a gentle soap will keep this jewelry sparkling without tarnishing. Use a soft-bristle toothbrush to get into tough-to-reach grooves.