

"I get to earn everything I get and do everything on my own," Holly tells Life & Style about life after the Playboy Mansion.

HOLLY IS AN AUTHOR!

Holly Madison's world is about to get even bigger! Not only is the Girls Next Door star launching her own spin-off show, Holly's World, on June 13 on E!, she reveals to Life & Style that she's hard at work on her first book. "I'm writing a book about Las Vegas," she confides. For research, she took a wild road trip from LA to Sin City, with stops at "freaky roadside attractions," she says, and a haunted hotel in Death Valley. That certainly sounds like a world away from the Playboy Mansion!
